

Application to UQ

After having been selected by NHH, you must pass the international admissions process to be accepted by UQ Business School as full-time, degree students. Admission Criteria for NHH students to UQ include:

- evidence of meeting UQ's English Language requirements; and
- a bachelor's degree award certificate; and
- an academic transcript from your postgraduate studies at NHH; and
- a copy of your passport; and
- an updated CV/resume outlining your previous internship or work experience; and
- a study plan.

Study Plan at UQ

NHH Msc Double Degree candidates will take one year of courses in the Master of Global Management at UQ Business School and must complete:

- The equivalent of 60 ECTS (16 units, including core courses, electives, and Global Management Thesis), which is half of the number of required credits to complete the Master of Global Management. NHH students must complete the required core courses of the UQ Business School program as stated in the Program Rules;
- The remaining units will be transferred from NHH.
