Goal and background

The goal of this agreement is to regulate the relation between NHH and the Author regarding the electronic publishing of the Author's master's thesis at NHH Brage, NHH's open institutional repository. The electronic publishing is done solely for the purpose of spreading information.

Content of agreement

The agreement implies that the author supplies NHH with his or her master's thesis and NHH will publish the thesis electronically on NHH's open institutional repository, NHH Brage.

Commitment of the parties

NHH undertakes the publishing of the Author's thesis, in electronic format at NHH Brage. The dissertation will be published in the status of delivery, with text, tables, graphics, pictures, etc. The Author shall leave the master's thesis in printed as well as electronic format, in accordance to instructions set out by NHH. Both printed and electronic version will be treated equally.

Copyright

The copyright of the master's thesis belongs to the Author.

Validity of agreement

This agreement is valid from the point of signing the agreement until the cancellation of the agreement.

Cancellation of agreement

The agreement can be cancelled by both part and the cancellation will in this case take place immediately. A notification of such cancellation shall be delivered in writing to the other party. It is not compulsory to give reason for cancellation. The cancellation means that NHH with immediate execution withdraws the master's thesis from NHH Brage.
