

NoCeT Fall Conference 2017 October 2 – 3, 2017

Call for Papers

On 2nd and 3rd of October 2017, the Norwegian Center for Taxation (NoCeT) will organize the NoCeT Fall Conference 2017, to be held at NHH in Bergen, Norway.

The center opened in September 2012 and is hosted by NHH and SNF Centre for Applied Research. NoCeT developed very well in its first funding period, and was granted a second five-year funding period until September 2022 by the Research Council of Norway. The NoCeT Fall Conference 2017 shall mark and celebrate this success and the prolonging of the funding. The aim is to foster academic debate and exchange, as well as to intensify cooperation within the international NoCeT network. Robin Boadway from Queens University will give a keynote lecture, and the members of NoCeT's Scientific Advisory Council confirmed their participation.

The conference invites the submission of papers from all fields of research covered by NoCeT. Clear preference will be given to submissions from members of the international NoCeT network. More information is available on the conference website.

The deadline for submissions is August 01st, 2017. For submission of (full) papers, please visit easychair.org and set up an account there. Then click on the conference NoCeT-FC-2017 or use the link below to Submit a paper

Only online submissions are accepted. Should you have any difficulties with the online submission procedure, please contact Dirk.Schindler@nhh.no for assistance.

Authors will be notified by August 12, 2017 as to whether their paper has been accepted for the conference. Authors of accepted papers will be reimbursed on their travel expenses (economy airfare) and hotel accommodation for three nights from 1st to 4th of October 2017 will be provided.

Further questions regarding the scientific content of the conference should be addressed to:

Dirk Schindler
Department of Accounting, Auditing and Law
NHH
5045 Bergen, Norway
dirk.schindler@nhh.no